Quarterback — California

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 223 Second NFL Season
 Born: Dec. 2, 1983 Second Packers Season
 NFL Gm. Played/Started: 3/0 Acquired: D1-05

An important component in the Packers' recent influx of young players, enters the second season as the No. 2 quarterback, resuming the role he earned as a rookie last year...Played in three contests in 2005, completing nine of 16 attempts for 65 yards, with one interception...His most action came at Baltimore (Dec. 19); entered the game in the third quarter and went 8-for-15 with one interception, plus one carry for 8 yards...Enthusiastic and confident, yet composed, showed maturity and dedication over the course of his rookie season and recent off-season...Worked tirelessly in the offseason to get a grasp on the new offense and also used the conditioning program to improve his core strength and flexibility...In the mini-camps and organized team activities, showed comfort as a leader, helping to teach his teammates the nuances of the offense...Though he does not have a standard delivery, is accurate and shows good touch on the ball on both short and long throws...Initially labeled by some as a finesse quarterback, has repeatedly demonstrated very good arm strength; additionally has shown toughness and the ability to absorb a hit...Rated by Packers personnel as one of the top players in the 2005 NFL Draft, slipped all the way to Green Bay's No. 24 slot...Was the second quarterback taken after Alex Smith (49ers) at No. 1...Was the eighth quarterback drafted by the Packers in the first round and the first since Rich Campbell, also from the University of California, was selected in 1981; became just the second player from Cal (joining Campbell) taken by Green Bay in the first round as well...Passed on his final year of eligibility and was considered one of the top quarterback prospects in the country with numerous football observers rating him as the No. 1 pick in the draft...Was a two-year starter (2003-04) for Cal after playing the 2002 season at Butte College, a junior college near Chico, Calif. ...Finished 17-5 as the Bears' field general, leading the school in 2004 to its best season in more than 50 years in just his second campaign at the Division I level...The answer to a great trivia question — before Vince Young turned in one of the greatest individual performances ever to lead Texas past USC in the Jan. 4 national championship, was the last quarterback to beat the formidable Trojans...Rodgers led Cal to a 34-31 win over USC at Memorial Stadium in Berkeley, on Sept. 27, 2003...USC avenged the loss in 2004 at the Los Angeles Coliseum, but not before Rodgers nearly beat the

PRO CAREER

Trojans again; the Bears fell one last-minute pass from tying the game...Before losing to Texas in the Rose Bowl, USC had won 34 straight, including two national championships...Rodgers' journey to the pros is a compelling story, beginning with scant Division I recruitment after two highly successful prep seasons; he was perhaps not big enough or located in an area not often recruited by the big schools...He opted to enroll at nearby Butte College and promptly led the Roadrunners to a 10-1 record and a No. 2 national JUCO ranking...Along came Cal coach Jeff Tedford, who noticed Rodgers while watching video of a teammate, tight end Garrett Cross (who later, too, became a Cal Golden Bear, and then a Green Bay Packer)...After watching him practice and feeling confident of his ability to thrive in Berkeley, Tedford offered Rodgers a scholarship and launched the beginning of two immensely successful seasons...Was a major component of a 2004 Cal campaign that saw the team reach its highest national ranking (No. 4) since 1952, produce its best regular-season record (10-1) in 54 years and record the most conference wins (seven) in 55 years...Took over as the starter in the fifth game of the 2003 season and went on to fire 43 touchdowns with

2005 SEASON

Saw action in three games as a rookie; he was active but did not play in the 13 other contests... Completed nine of 16 attempts (56.3 percent) for 65 yards, with one interception, a 39.8 passer rating... Also credited with two rushes for 7 yards, including a kneel down on the season's final snap, after QB Brett Favre was given a curtain call... Made his NFL debut in 52-3 win vs. New Orleans (Oct. 9)... Entered on the Packers' initial series of the fourth quarter and completed his lone attempt, his first career pass, to FB Vonta Leach for no gain... Got his most extensive playing time in 48-3 Monday night loss at Baltimore (Dec. 19)... Came off the bench toward the end of the third quarter and finished the contest... Went 8-for-15 with one interception and also carried once for 8 yards... In the fourth quarter, completed a 15-yard pass to WR Antonio Chatman on fourth-and-8... Later on the drive, completed another fourth-down pass, to TE David Martin for 9 yards on fourth-and-4... On the next series, hooked up with Chatman for 16 yards... Later in the quarter, ran for 8 yards on second-and-6... Officially credited with one carry for minus-1 yard in season-ending win vs. Seattle (Jan. 1)... Took the contest's final kneel down, his only play, after replacing Favre, who had started the drive... Got an extended look in the preseason opener vs. San Diego (Aug. 11), replacing Favre; endured a malfunctioning helmet radio, four offensive penalties and two sacks, and as a result the coaching staff didn't get a great look at him in his rainy preseason debut... Struggled as the No. 2 QB the following week at Buffalo (Aug. 20), going 4-for-9, for 21 yards, with one sack and an INT; his two best plays were carries (22, 9 yards)... Despite a rough preseason, including another INT vs. New England (Aug. 26), Favre said his 1991 rookie debut with Atlanta was worse... Ended preseason on a good note, though, at Tennessee (Sept. 1): orchestrated an important scoring drive, converting two third downs, before hitting TE Ben Steele on a 12-yard touchdown.

Was clutch in the school's final two contests, throwing for 300-plus yards in victories vs. Washington Nov. 15 (348) and at Stanford Nov. 22 (359), both must-wins in order for Cal to clinch its first bowl berth since 1996... In the Stanford contest, registered 414 yards of total offense (359 passing, 55 rushing) to record the highest total in the 106-year history of the 'Big Game' (Jim Plunkett, 1969); it was the fourth-highest total offense output in team history... Served as one of two offensive team captains... Played one season (2002) at Butte College, near Chico, Calif., and led the Roadrunners to a 10-1 record, a Nor Cal Conference championship and a No. 2 national ranking... The NFL's third-quarter rule

Provided that a club has two quarterbacks on its 45-player Active List, a third quarterback from its Inactive List is permitted to dress for the game, but if he enters the game during the first three quarters, the other two quarterbacks are thereafter prohibited from playing.

Teams can insert any of their three quarterbacks at any time, regardless of injury or depth-chart order (first string, second string, etc.). However, if the deactivated quarterback, i.e., the 46th player, enters in the first three quarters, neither of the other two quarterbacks can return to the game. If the deactivated quarterback enters in the fourth quarter or overtime, the other two quarterbacks can return.
